Offering a contemporary take on country-style living, the Montana stylishly combines elements of rural warmth with today's modern musts. A wide frontage creates a warm welcome and gives this single-level home charming street presence.

Bright and airy spaces are part of its liveable and relaxed appeal, as well as a design focus on comfort and character. The open-plan lounge and dining area is highlighted by a raked ceiling and forms a central living space that brings everyone together, while an adjoining dual-entry theatre room offers another place to unwind.

A farmhouse-style kitchen overlooks the main family living area and is within easy reach of the alfresco zone, where expansive glass sliding doors provide seamless connection between indoors and out.
